

Few Hitches Occur During County Alert

Monroe's first Civil Defense air raid and disaster test since World War Two went off last night with almost no hitches. The first word was flashed by telephone from the C.D. headquarters at the Court House, on schedule at 10 p.m.

Within 60 seconds, the Bell Telephone and Blue Mountain Telephone Co. operators had put through calls to each of the five zones. Zone officials in turn relayed the alert by telephone to their auxiliary police, C.D. nursing units, and other C.D. set-ups.

Cars were halted on main highways throughout the county between 10 and 10:20. The alert had been scheduled for a five-minute duration, but there was delay in relaying the alert in some of the zones.

In one, a "busy" telephone signal resulted in Stroud Township getting the warning 10 minutes late. This resulted in auxiliary police in that zone stopping cars which had just been released when the all clear sounded farther down the line. It was a minor snag, however.

In scores of small villages and in the boroughs as well, residents cooperation to a considerable extent by drawing their blinds. Stores—those still open—killed their lights. In Stroudsburg, at least, street lights were turned off.

Other residents ignored the alert. Perhaps they failed to hear the howl of air raid or fire sirens.

Auxiliary police had been instructed not to bother householders—those who didn't cooperate. It was, for the moment at least, only a test.

Headquarters in Stroudsburg was notable for its calmness. A group of auxiliary police acting as guards for headquarters sat on chairs, smoking silently. Assistant C.D. Director Jack Anderson telephoned steadily, receiving reports and issuing such brief instructions as "Hello? Put the disaster plan into effect please," then signaling the operator and making another call.

At the gadget and knob-studded main transmitter, C.D. Communications Chief Ernie Traneue talked rapidly but easily into the microphone of the set, maintaining contact with the five other short wave C.D. radio stations in operation last night. Mobile units, they were, bolted into trucks or cars, or carried as portables. One or two hams stood by as part of the network.

Barrett Township was an example of a zone fairly thoroughly developed, schooled and briefed in handling itself in case of air raid or enemy attack.

At about 9:30 at Barrett High School an alumni game ended. No sooner were the spectators streaming out of the gym doors than C.D. workers were swiftly setting up four bunks, an operating table, reception station for refugees, and mobilizing auxiliary police.

Director Marshall Reese, who is superintendent at Buck Hill Falls, moved quietly through the groups, supervising and guiding activity.

There was very little lost motion. At 10 p.m. auxiliary police manned their stations, plotted previously. They commanded road junctions, highway intersections, and villages.

Commanded by Forrest Evans, they set out to watch for "refugee cars" and direct these to the reception center at the school, to direct the "wounded" to the first aid station and to halt all traffic during the alert. The mobile radio C.D. truck stood by in front of the school, ready to move in any direction at radioed instructions from headquarters in Stroudsburg.

A few minutes after 10 p.m., a C.D. auxiliary policeman failed to stop two cars which went south on Route 90 at Paradise, coming from Mountainhome. He may not have been notified of the alert at that time, however.

By the time the two cars reached Anomalink it was 10:10. Anomalink's siren was sounding and auxiliary police waved down the cars with flashlights from both directions.

"There is an alert," one told the driver. "Pull off to the side of the road, please, and turn off your lights. The alert will last about five minutes."

All drivers complied. There was no argument.

At 10:20 Anomalink lifted its alert and the cars moved on. About a dozen had piled up on the northbound side, only two southbound.

At Stroudsburg headquarters Willis Dunlap telephoned in from Pocono Lake to report on Zone 6. It was 10:45 p.m. "We had 40 or 50 men working," Dunlap said, "and we took care of six at the reception center and first aid station. I think the thing was 100 per cent perfect."

A moment later a trouble call came in from Marshalls Creek—an unscheduled call. More auxiliary police were needed to help with traffic. There was a tie-up.

The six headquarters guards, trouble-shooting members of the Marine Corps League, were dispatched at once to assist. They left quietly and swiftly, headed by Commander Don Witchcraft.

Notorious Gangster Named By FBI As Participant In $1,219,000 Brink's Holdup

Boston, (AP)—Joseph "Specs" O'Keefe, notorious Boston gangster, is named as a participant in the fantastic $1,219,000 Brink's holdup in FBI affidavits which became available to newsmen last night.

The affidavits, drawn a few months after the Jan. 17, 1950, crime by the FBI agent in charge of the robbery investigation, assert the agent's belief that some of the loot was at that time concealed in a overstuffed chair in the Boston home of Mary and Paul Hooley, sister and brother-in-law of "Specs" O'Keefe.

The sworn statements—which had been secreted, but in a public place—became available during a recess in a contempt case against O'Keefe, a reluctant witness in a current grand jury investigation of the robbery. O'Keefe is here on a court order from the Bradford County jail in Towanda, Pa.

The affidavits, found by newsmen in a federal building office, were signed by FBI Agent John B. Greene.

The affidavits assert that "a substantial sum of money in the approximate amount of $60,000 in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100 bills was on April 27, 1950, and still is unlawfully possessed by Paul and Mary Hooley."

The affidavits indicated that the money was first hidden in the Hooley's Boston home and then taken to their Stoughton home.

Pieces of a truck believed used in the robbery were later found in a Stoughton dump.

At the same time the affidavits became available, unconfirmed reports were published that the FBI has recovered some of the Brink's money, although not necessarily any of the money referred to in the affidavits.

Hardly had the affidavits, four in all, been obtained by newsmen when it was learned three ranking Boston policemen had been summoned to testify before the grand jury investigating America's largest unsolved cash robbery.

The crime was pulled off by a band of gunmen all dressed alike in Navy style pea coats, seaman type caps and wearing grotesque hoodmasks.

Working in almost complete silence, the robbers—all of about the same size and of undetermined number—tied up five employees in the vaults of the money transportation firm and made off with the loot.

The C.D. network, contacted Traneue in Stroudsburg, Everything O. K. and under control, he reported.

John Lesoine, C.D. transportation officer and a trucker and mover by trade, furnished transportation to Zone Three.

In addition, Lesoine held a pool of cars and trucks in readiness in Stroudsburg for any need or urgent request. None was made.

The group of local and State officials left headquarters in Stroudsburg about 9. They were split into two groups.

The faction led by County CD Director Fred W. Davis watched the beginning of the alert at Pocono Lake in Zone 5, saw the Broadheads Creek reception center and first aid station in operation, then moved back to Stroudsburg's VFW post.

The other section, led by Elmer D. Christine, a VFW State vice-commander, inspected Barrett Township's set-up, went on to Marshalls Creek's facilities and returned to join the Davis group at the VFW.

There, over hot coffee, State officials, local CD men and most of the Zone 2 (Stroudsburg) personnel declared themselves satisfied with the county's first try at self defense.

At the time the two cars reached Anomalink it was 10:10. Anomalink's siren was sounding and auxiliary police waved down the cars with flashlights from both directions.

"There is an alert," one told the driver. "Pull off to the side of the road, please, and turn off your lights. The alert will last about five minutes."

Elderly Man Hit By Car, Badly Hurt

A 64-year-old man resident of an East Stroudsburg home for the aged was seriously injured last night near Milford Crossing when he was hit by a car.

Taken to Monroe County General Hospital for treatment at 6 p. m. was Thomas Tomelwich who lived at a home operated by Mrs. Harry Winters on Burton St., East Stroudsburg.

Hospital authorities listed his injuries as a fractured pelvis, fractured hip joint, broken left ankle, multiple bruises and abrasions, possible head injuries and shock. His condition was listed as "serious" by the hospital early today.

East Stroudsburg borough police, investigating the accident, said it apparently occurred at "about 5:50 p. m." on N. Courtland St. near Milford Crossing when Tomelwich walked in front of a car driven by John William Chamberlain, of Delaware Water Gap.

Tomelwich was taken to the hospital by ambulance. Police meanwhile were attempting to locate relatives or friends in the area.

Investigation last night revealed that Tomelwich may have had relatives living in Easton or some other part of Northampton County.

One Siamese Twin Regains Consciousness After Separation; Other Is 'Precarious'

Chicago, (AP)—The newly divided Brodie Siamese twins went separate ways yesterday after their historic operation, one becoming conscious but the other taking a turn for the worse then improving only slightly.

Rodney Dee, favored for "survival of the fittest" by choice of surgeons who separated him from his bigger twin brother, regained consciousness with a cry and a smile yesterday morning.

His twin, Roger Lee, whose brain circulation was impaired by the operation—the 13th on the twins—suffered one relapse but then showed a slight gain.

Surgeons said, however, his condition still is "precarious."

The latest bulletin on the condition of the tiny 15-month-old twins, issued by the University of Illinois, gave this report:

"Rodney—Has regained consciousness. Cries and smiles. Condition is stable. Seems to be good."

"Roger—Still in very precarious condition, although respiration and other vital factors have improved slightly this morning."

This improvement cheered surgeons who Wednesday had to make one of the most difficult decisions they ever faced.

At the height of the 12-hour and 40-minute operation, they discovered their earlier fears were well founded. There was only one sagittal sinus, the main passageway or vein draining blood back from both brains.

This called for an immediate choice. The incision could be made to give one twin or the other the vital vein.

Dr. Eric Oldberg, head of the University of Illinois Department of Neurology, said Rodney—the smaller of the twins—got the break because he was holding up much better under the strain of the operation, and surgery in his favor could be more easily performed.

Dr. Oldberg, an observer at the operation, performed in the university's Neuropsychiatric Institute, described the surgery in detail at a news conference.

He said the surgeons "more or less went for one and took the bigger chance on the other. The choice was made on the basis of which child did well and which didn't."

"Roger didn't do well. He was in shock several times. His condition was precarious."

A newsmen asked him if the doctors decided their course should be to aid in "the survival of the fittest."

"You might put it that way," Dr. Oldberg replied.

Benefits Would Be Available To Everyone

Washington, (AP)—A presidential health commission proposed yesterday a voluntary, pay-in-advance plan to help "bring medical services of the highest possible quality within the reach of all."

People who could afford it would meet their own doctors' bills on a prepaid basis, if they wished to join the government-sponsored program. For people who could not afford it—and the plan is intended largely to help them—the federal and state governments would chip in to pay part or all of the costs.

Commission officials said membership would be voluntary and states would be free to participate or stay out. They said patients would be allowed to choose their doctors and the physicians would be unfettered in their practice.

In a report that took a stand somewhere between a compulsory health plan urged by President Truman and a voluntary system recommended by the American Medical Association, the commission said:

"What is desired . . . is adequate protection against the costs of hospital care, the services of physicians and other health personnel . . . in office and home as well as in the hospital—the more expensive drugs and appliances, and certain dental care."

Truman issued a statement saying he hoped the recommendations would be carried out, that the commission's proposal would "not be just a dead report." President Louis H. Bauer of the AMA promptly pronounced part of the plan "objectionable" on grounds it represents compulsory health insurance and would lead to control of health services by "big government."

The commission did not envision putting the whole program into effect at once on a national scale, but trying it out on a pilot basis in limited areas at first.

No over-all price tag, either for government or individuals, was attached to this plan to put "almost complete protection" within the reach of everybody. But the commission recommended that the federal government and the states each contribute 750 million dollars a year—a total of 1½ billion—to assist persons unable to meet all their medical expenses.

This program would be run largely at the local level, although it would have to meet federal qualifications as to extent and quality of coverage.

"We believe," the commission said, "it is well within the economic potential of this great country to provide itself with the finest system of health care in the world, that the American people desire this and deserve no less."

But three of the 15 members said the commission plan doesn't go far enough.

Ike Confers With House GOP Leaders

New York, (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower indicated yesterday he may follow up his inauguration by making a speech to Congress on his legislative program and the state of the Union.

Word that Eisenhower is considering this possibility came from Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts after he attended the first of a series of conferences the President-elect has scheduled with Republican congressional leaders.

The address "naturally will deal with his legislative program and the state of the Union," Martin told a news conference at Eisenhower's headquarters.

The first Eisenhower-congressional conference gave little clue as to details of the legislative program, except that Martin said the main emphasis would be on reducing federal spending.

Martin, slated to be speaker of the House in the new Congress, said the discussion dealt with general outlines of a program and not with specific legislation.

Attending the conference with Martin were Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana, prospective House majority leader, and Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, slated to become the House "whip."

Eisenhower is planning a similar conference with Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and other GOP senatorial leaders after Christmas.

Martin asked whether the program would result in a tax reduction, said, "We've got to see about reducing spending before we get around to taxes."

He said the main objective of the next Congress would be a balanced budget, but "I am not precluding any tax reduction."

O'Dwyer Kept Dock Scandals Under Cover, Says Witness

New York, (AP)—The veil of years was lifted from the murderous Brooklyn waterfront again yesterday with testimony that a one-time district attorney—William O'Dwyer—kept some of its scandals under cover.

An official of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association told the State Crime Commission he revealed a $20,000 waterfront dues shakedown to O'Dwyer's office. The witness, Anthony P. Guistra, said nothing ever came of his expose.

One of O'Dwyer's former assistants in those days, Edward A. Heffernan, claimed he exposed gangster control of the Brooklyn piers 12 years ago. But he said his report gathered dust after O'Dwyer told him "to close the case."

Heffernan also told of getting a statement allegedly linking Albert Anastasia in gory detail to the murder of a union waterfront reformer. Heffernan said he was told to file it and forget it.

The murder victim was Peter Panto. His slaying later mushroomed into one of the most sensational cases with the breaking of the old Murder, Inc., gang.

O'Dwyer claimed he had a perfect case against Anastasia in the Panto slaying. But it went out the window, he said, with Abe (Kid Twist) Reles, who plunged to his death while under heavy police guard more than a decade ago. Reles was to have been his star witness.

O'Dwyer's regime as Brooklyn district attorney has often been criticized and grand jury inquiries more than once have castigated him. Nevertheless, the job was O'Dwyer's stepping stone to the mayoralty and thence to the U. S. ambassadorship to Mexico, a post he just resigned. He has often denied there was anything improper in his conduct of the district attorney's office.

Red Boasts Mei With Allied Bombs

Seoul, (AP)—The Communists boasted by radio and frontline loudspeakers yesterday that they would be in Seoul by Christmas.

The Allies answered with a pulverizing smash at a huge enemy troop concentration area near the North Korean capital of Pyongyang, 115 miles northwest of Seoul.

The Reds propaganda brags were supplemented by the rare appearance of a Communist plane over the quiet front. It dropped leaflets hitting the theme: "Yankee, go home."

Answering words with bombs, waves of Allied fighter-bombers winged through 10-degree above zero cold and pounded the Red troop area 20 miles south of Pyongyang.

Would Extend Power

Washington, (AP)—President Truman's Committee on Management recommended yesterday that the President be given permanent power to reorganize executive branches of the government.

Sen. Searlett Dies

Kennett Square, (AP)—State Sen. George B. Searlett, 73-year-old Republican who represented Chester County for 16 years, died in a Wilmington, Del., hospital Wednesday night.

HST Refuses To Alter His View Of Ike

Washington, (AP)—President Truman stood pat yesterday on his view that it was demagoguery when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower announced during the presidential campaign that he would go to Korea.

"Your opinion is still the same?" a reporter inquired at the President's news conference.

Oh, yes, Truman said, my opinion hasn't changed.

The President had no comment on the New York meeting Wednesday between President-elect Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the fired Far Eastern commander who says there is a way to end the Korean War.

Diplomat's Wife Given Jail Term

Arlington, Va. (AP)—Mrs. Phyllis Penn Kohler, wife of a State Department career diplomat, was convicted of a drunken driving charge yesterday and was given a 30-day jail term and fined $150.

Arlington County Court Judge Paul D. Brown suspended all but three hours of the jail sentence. He told Mrs. Kohler that in a case such as hers he wanted her to see "the inside of the jail."

Mrs. Kohler's attorney immediately gave notice of an appeal. It was set for trial at next term of Circuit Court two months hence.

ONE OF THE MOST MIRACULOUS of all flowers is the Christmas Rose shown here as it appears in full bloom on the Davis Keller Farm, Cherry Valley. Officially classified as "hellerborus niger," the Christmas flower derives its name from a legend dating back to the early days of Christianity. According to legend, the rose first appeared when a little shepherdess, watching as the Three Wise Men brought gifts to Bethlehem, wept because she had no gift to offer the Christ Child. When the tears fell from her cheeks to the ground, flowers sprang from the soil. The little girl swept the white flowers into her arms and ran to the stable. As she knelt beside the crib, Jesus touched the flowers with His hands and the center of the pure white flowers was tinted a delicate pink. In this manner, according to the legend, a flower which never bloomed before came into being. The Christmas Rose appears more abundantly during the Yule season than at any other time of the year. 12 Families Flee When Fire Levels Store At Sayre

Sayre, (AP)—Fire swept the downtown section of Sayre yesterday in the Christmas shopping rush, destroying a large store and 12 apartments above the store.

Firemen from seven companies battled the wind-driven flames with more than 20 lines of hose spread over four city blocks. The blaze started about 2 p.m. and flared out of control until about 7 p.m. There were no injuries. Twelve families were evacuated from the apartments.

Fire companies on the scene were from Athens, Towanda and Sayre in Pennsylvania, and from Waverly, South Waverly, Owego and Elmira in New York. Fire Chief Albert Frank of Sayre said the blaze apparently started in the boiler room of Ward's home furnishing and appliance store.

County Postoffices In Midst Of Record Christmas Season

Peak Days Seen Today And Saturday

With the peak day for mailing Christmas cards still to be reached, postoffices in Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg have processed approximately 326,000 letters in the first four days of this week and look to a record-breaking season.

Yesterday was the heaviest recorded in history but indications are that today and Saturday will surpass the heavy mail already cancelled.

Fred Rhodes, Stroudsburg postmaster said 64 employees are working to expedite mail deliveries, and 35 of those are Christmas substitutes. Yesterday three deliveries were made and while the rush is on as many deliveries as are necessary to clear the postoffice will be made.

Figures for the first three days in Stroudsburg were listed by Rhodes as follows: Monday, 26,000; Tuesday, 41,000 and Wednesday, 46,000. No totals were ready for yesterday's processing but Rhodes estimated it would reach almost 60,000.

In East Stroudsburg postoffice employees also were laboring constantly to deliver Yuletide greetings to borough and rural delivery homes and expected yesterday's records to top 50,000.

First three days of the week East Stroudsburg postoffice cancelled the following amount of letters, Norman Gregory, postmaster said: Monday, 33,000; Tuesday, 37,000 and Wednesday, 43,265.

The East Stroudsburg office is utilizing the services of 39 workers, 14 of whom have been employed for the Christmas season only.

The story is the same all over Monroe County. In Mount Pocono, the only other county postoffice where carriers are used, Louis DePaul, postmaster said this is the biggest year in history and employees are on duty constantly to see that deliveries are made promptly.

In other communities where residents hold boxes, postmasters and postmistresses have been augmented by one or two persons to continue the laborious task that will fade away only on Christmas Day.

Skyline Inn Fire Causes $5,000 Loss

Mount Pocono — Prompt action by employees of Skyline Inn and the Volunteer Fire Co. here averted the spread of fire at the resort hotel at 6 a. m. yesterday, but damage to a boiler room was estimated at close to $5,000.

The blaze was discovered by Austin Mulhern, night watchman making his regular check, and was confined to a concrete structure which housed the heating plant for the inn.

Mulhern aroused the inn's staff and an alarm went in to the Mount Pocono firemen. Armed with hand extinguishers employees attempted to quell flames which originated in a coal container which feeds the boiler, and firemen arrived to play hoses on the burning building. By 7 a. m. the fire was extinguished.

Located about 50 feet from the inn, the boiler building's frame roof was destroyed and equipment demolished. Some damage by smoke also was reported in the dormitory adjoining.

Frank Birdsell, manager of the inn, said yesterday an auxiliary heating system was placed in operation in the afternoon and business is continuing normally.

Countians Invest $49,975 In Bonds

Monroe County residents purchased a total of $49,975 in Series E and H Savings Bonds during November, it was announced yesterday by E. H. Wyckoff, chairman of the sales campaign for this area.

Series E, H, J and K bonds in the amount of $33,975 were bought during the same period, Wyckoff said.

Tree-Lighting Slated Today

Mountainhome — The annual Christmas tree-lighting ceremony will be held at the Methodist Church here today at 3:30 p. m. M. Peiffer and Rev. Harold Murray will lead carol singing.

Lt. Irene Slack, Cresco Army Nurse, Greets First WAC Contingent To Arrive In Korea

A brown-haired Cresco girl was on hand to greet the WACs when the WACs moved into Korea recently.

It was the first time WACs had been assigned to Korea. But they were not the first American women to live on the bitter peninsula since the start of the war.

The Cresco girl was one of a band which has been moving quietly in the middle echelons, not usually at the front, nor yet at the rearmost seaport. They are members of the Army Nurse Corps.

First Lt. D. Irene Slack received her silver bar in October, but she's been in Korea eight months.

"What is she doing there?" echoed her mother, Mrs. Horace W. Storm, Cresco. "Freezing to death, according to her letters."

Mrs. Storm said it with a laugh last night. Her tone indicated Lt. Slack doesn't really complain very often. She told of her daughter receiving the Bayonet Award for her part in the support of the Seventh Infantry Division from Oct. 14 to 29. It was presented Nov. 7 at the division C. P. by Maj. Gen. Wayne C. Smith.

That much Mrs. Storm knew. But not a great deal more, outside of family news... 50 miles south of Seoul... a member of the Third Neuro-Surgical Detachment... working eight hours a day when fighting was slack... working 12 and 14 hours a day when casualties mounted and the helicopters which fly the wounded right to the detachment kept coming... head and back injuries mostly... sleeping four in a tent, the nurses. Not in barracks... in a tent (she wrote Mr. Storm)... would like to be home for Christmas, but... Lt. Slack graduated from Barrett High School in 1947, was graduated from University of Pennsylvania Nursing School in 1950. She served as a nurse at Princeton Hospital, N. J., then enlisted in the ANG in March 1951 because she "likes the Army."

She signed up for a two-year hitch, served at Ft. Knox, Ky., until February 1952, then was transferred to Japan. She moved up from Japan to Korea in May, has been there ever since without a chance for a quickie back to Japan.

Her hitch will be up in May, and Lt. Slack doesn't plan to re-enlist. She'd like to go to college next Fall. It depends on how badly the Army needs nurses.

And the Army's never said it had a surplus of nurses in Korea. Lt. Slack cares for the wounded, and recently, she wrote, she'd been "pretty busy..."

Rose Legend Related By Rev. Blatt

Eighty children, assembled by the Salvation Army for Stroudsburg Rotary Club members who had them as guests yesterday at an annual Christmas party, were told that even children can make a gift to Jesus, born the Babe of Bethlehem on Christmas Day.

Rev. Frank H. Blatt gave the legend of the Christmas rose to illustrate his point. He said a young shepherdess met the Three Wise Men bearing rich gifts for the Babe of Bethlehem.

She, too, wanted to give something, but being poor, she had no gifts at hand. As she wept over her plight, tears poured down on a white flower and they seemed to nod to be picked as a gift. The young girl delivered a huge bouquet to the Babe of Bethlehem's manger and when the Child touched the flower it turned pink in the center.

Rev. Blatt said the flowers, one of which he displayed, bloom from November to March, but are never more beautiful than at Christmas. "You children need not have great wealth to make your contribution to Christmas," Rev. Blatt said.

The minister said the party for the 80 children is appropriate because Christmas is primarily for children. That is so, he said, because God gave his only Son to save the world.

Jess Haynes, president of Rotary welcomed the children and turned the program over to Glenn Sanborn, program chairman. Major May Adam was introduced. She presented her two assistants, Lts. Dorothy Spencer and Helen White. Gerald P. O'Neill had Tommy Cullen's orchestra play Christmas music and accompany general singing led by I. W. Foltz. Jess Flory introduced Rotarians en

The big climax, of course, was the appearance of Santa Claus for a further distribution of refreshments.

It was a question last night who enjoyed the Business and Professional Women's Club Christmas party more, the members or their elderly guests. To each of the guests went a Christmas corsage, presented by Kathryn James, chairman of the party committee, and to Mrs. Carrie Banks, 87, went a special corsage, an orchid as the oldest guest.

Miss Elizabeth Martin gave the opening invocation, and the carols were led by Mrs. Ann George, with Mrs. Mildred Cyphers as accompanist. There were 89 present.

Miss Marie Brown, vice president, introduced the guests at this the fourth annual party sponsored by the members. The entertainment included a toe ballet "Skater's Waltz" by Mary Frances Frankenhoff, and a dramatization of "The Beautiful Tree" by Connie Bevers. Ann George sang the first two verses of "Silent Night" with the members and their guests joining in the third verse.

Santa Claus, in person, distributed the gifts to the members and to their guests.

Girl Scouts Pay Off $500 On House

The Girl Scout Council of Monroe County has paid off another $500 on the indebtedness on the Girl Scout House, it was announced last night at the executive board meeting held at the home of the president, Mrs. Harold C. Edwards, Club Court.

The payment was made possible through the gift of $200 from Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Weiss, with the remainder of the payment raised by the troops themselves through cookie sales. A vote of appreciation was unanimously approved. Horace Westbrook, treasurer, in announcing the bond payment reported that a total of $2,500 had been paid on the house.

The formation of two new troops was announced by Mrs. Walter Dreher, registrar. One of the troops is led by Mrs. J. L. Cohen, with Mrs. Kurt Wimer planning to register the Tannersville Brownie troop next week. Mrs. Camille Harvey, executive secretary, reported plans to hold a day campers reunion during the holidays when the girls will be shown movies of the day camp sessions in 1949, 1950, and 1951. The new Girl Scout camp on Mosier's Knob has not been used during the hunting season, but a number of troops plan winter weekends there.

Mrs. Edwards reported for Mrs. William Miller, camping chairman, who announced that the camp was entirely paid for. In commenting on this, Mrs. Edwards reported that national Girl Scout headquarters had been much impressed by the community support and cooperation which made the camp building possible. Mrs. Harry Heller, president of the Leaders Association, was welcomed as a new board member.

Mrs. Edwards entertained the board at a supper before the meeting.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Close your eyes and you can see red and silver Christmas ribbons. At least, you can if you've been wrapping up packages by the hour. But mingled with the red and silver ribbon are a lot of other impressions of a busy-busy day.

The music of the celeste and Barbara Trassue's voice and the songs she sang all sort of matched, somehow. Bell-like, muted and reminiscent of an exquisite music box. Very relaxing moment at the Garden Club meeting.

And a very smart idea, the Robbers' cards—Dutch cookie cutter designs, done in a gingerbread brown, and they must have mixed cinnamon with the paint because the card smelled like a country kitchen while the cookies are baking.

Dottie Grant's charming Christmas token—a white felt Christmas ornament, stitched in gold and with tiny felt flowers and candy paper leaves—perfect for the Christmas tree, and something to be cherished from year to year.

And Kathryn Edwards' little card table centerpiece at the supper for the Girl Scout board: Apples, wrapped in silver foil, and hollowed out to hold a sprig of greens and berries.

And the comforting realization of how beautiful are the faces of the old-in-years when they've been the belles of the ball as they were at the Business and Professional Women's party.

Garden Club Exhibits For Christmas

The Monroe County Garden Club's Christmas party at the Penn-Stroud Hotel yesterday afternoon featured the music of the celeste with Gene Schiller, and the vocal solos of Miss Barbara Trassue.

Miss Trassue sang a group of five numbers with a Christmas encore, and Miss Schiller concluded her solos with a chime arrangement of "Silent Night." Mrs. Edward C. Knob gave the invocation and Mrs. William R. Levering led the club in Christmas carols.

Mrs. Robert A. Miller, president, brought Christmas greetings in opening the meeting and expressed her appreciation for the members who served on her staff for the past two years and presented miniature corsages to each member present.

Mrs. A. Starr Phelps, chairman of the hospital committee, announced that Christmas bouquets would be placed on the trays of patients at the hospital on Christmas morning. Mrs. Claude Cramer announced a membership of 157.

Mrs. Elwood Grant explained the Christmas arrangements exhibited by members. She and Mrs. Frank Stackhouse are chairmen of the exhibit committee. Mrs. Grant had made Della Robbia wreaths, with the fruit so typical of their influence in Italian art, and a Byzantine wreath of gilded wheat and red ornaments, and a Christmas music arrangement.

Mrs. Elmer Keifer, exhibited an arrangement in a star cookie cutter and a Christmas card us-

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

Remember that old quotation, "A gift from the heart is of art." Well, it's equally true, I imagine, that a gift of art is a gift with the heart in it — particularly when the artwork is original with the donor.

As I was thinking of this yesterday as I studied two lovely oils painted by Dorothy Dunn, Dorothy's a girl with decided artistic ability, but to the great disappointment of those who know her, she has too little time to indulge in it. However, when Christmas rolls around, and holly leaves, poinsettia and mistletoe make their appearance, out come the easels, paints, and canvas, and a few of her most treasured friends have a remembrance that is a true reflection of the Dunn personality; a gift that will say "Merry Christmas" for years to come.

This subject is a particularly appropriate one today, when our Art Supplies Department is advertising a complete line of equipment for the artist. There are sets of paints for the beginner, more elaborate sets for the professional, Alphonse textile sets, ceramic painting sets, and pastel chalk sets. Not being an artist, I don't pretend to know the first thing about them, but I will say this: If someone were to give me a beginners' set I'd be thrilled beyond words. I was always at the foot of the class artistically — but there's a hidden corner of my mind that is confident of discovering a wee bit of talent, if ever the idea were sufficiently encouraged. And, just between us, don't you feel pretty much the same way?

All of us crave beauty, and long to express beauty in terms others will understand. And it seems to me that the gods of fate are more generous than we realize when they distribute talent. Why not buy yourself a Christmas present of artist's supplies and adept a new hobby? Why not encourage talent in the others of the family? Then, when the first painting is done, begin again knowing that sooner or later you must surely develop a flair for color and a style all your own.

Here's another truth . . . no matter what you may think of your initial efforts, you'll be thrilled when they are finally framed. A frame is as important to a picture as a flattering hair style to a smart woman. We have all kinds of frames at Wyckoff's—including the custom made if you wish. Here's hoping fate will frame up a hale and "arty" 1953 for you, and that there'll soon be more than hand writing on your wall!

From art to music is only a small jump, so let's take it with an invitation to hear Gene Schiller in a program of special Christmas music on the celeste this evening and again tomorrow night, from 7:30 to 7:30 in our Wyckoff tea room.

Learn Named By Alliance

Philadelphia, (AP)—Any attempt to open taprooms on Sunday in Pennsylvania will be fought by the Lord's Day Alliance of Pennsylvania, a spokesman for that group said yesterday.

Rev. Melvin M. Forney, general secretary of the group, said at yesterday's annual meeting that the Alliance expects an attempt in the 1953 General Assembly by liquor interests to extend the midnight Saturday curfew to 2 a. m. Sunday.

Rev. Forney did not name the liquor interests but said various legislators have informed him that other liquor bills are being promoted which would allow taprooms to open after noon on Sunday.

The Alliance also took steps to defeat a proposed horse racing bill which, Rev. Forney said, will undoubtedly be introduced in the 1953 session.

Dr. John Yates, of Harrisburg, was elected field secretary for 1953. Among those elected to the board of directors was Dale H. Leann, East Stroudsburg, and Dr. Walter E. McConkey, Washington, Pa.

TV Station Gets Building Permit

The Federal Communications Commission yesterday granted a construction permit to the Easton Publishing Co. to build and operate an ultra-high frequency television station.

Marilyn Monroe Objects To Use Of 1946 Picture

She has asked 20th Century Fox lawyers, a spokesman said yesterday, to see if anything can be done about stopping use of the celebrated picture on trays and drinking glasses.

Their offhand opinion was that nothing could. But they said they'd dig deeper in legal tones.

The spokesman said he and Marilyn had seen the picture on cocktail trays. They'd heard of its use on glasses. He didn't think she'd make a real legal fight of it unless the practice got to be a national institution.

The blonde lovely posed for the picture in 1946. When she was later identified as the subject, she said she posed because she was hungry and three weeks behind in her rent.

First brought out in 1951, the calendar was reprinted for '52 and '53 and in January will be available for '54.

It is believed that the cultivation of rye started comparatively late in comparison with some other cereals, possibly in the bronze age.

Stroudsburg, Eastburg Fives On Home Courts Today

Scranton Central, Parkland To Invade Area; Adelman III

Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg High schools are listed for basketball action on their home courts simultaneously for the second straight Friday, when the Mountaineers play host to Scranton Central High and the Cavaliers are at home with a strong Parkland club, in a Lehigh-Northampton League contest, today.

This will be the final outing for both local quieties before they take part in the opening round of the Lehigh Valley Invitation Basketball Tournament in Slatington's Smith Hall.

Stroudsburg, weakened all season by the absence of Bill Bailey and Karl Weingartner, because of football injuries, will probably be without the services of Captain Al Adelman tonight, when the maroon and white clad Mountaineers play host to a reportedly very tall Scranton Central club. Adelman is suffering from a heavy cold and has been unable to practice of late.

Bailey and Weingartner are expected to be in uniform for the first time this season tonight, but neither is expected to see any action.

Lineup

Coach Sam Russell announced last night that the opening Stroudsburg lineup would probably feature Bill Hickey and Byron "Chick" Miller at the forward spots, while Ray Ejdys operates at center and Don Garaventi and Benny Miller hold down the guard positions.

The Mountaineers have won one of four games played thus far this season.

Scranton will feature six members of its team over the six-foot mark, with one exceeding that height by four inches.

The Stroudsburg-Scranton classic will be the windup of a triple-header on the W. Main St. court, which will feature Stroudsburg Junior High against the Polk High junior varsity at 6 p.m. and the Polk varsity will clash with the Stroudsburg junior varsity at 7:15 p.m., while Scranton and Stroudsburg lock horns at 8:30 p.m.

East Stroudsburg on the other hand will be home with Parkland, an annual power in the Lehigh-Northampton League, in the third circuit outing of the season for the Cavaliers.

The youthful Cavaliers have lost league decisions to Hellertown and Bangor, while Parkland suffered a surprise reversal at the hands of Fountain Hill on Tuesday.

Coach Dick Foster announced last night that his starting quintet would feature Don Herman and Captain Joe Chase at the forward berths, Bill Pensyl, Portland, at center, and sharp-shooting Bill Sommers and Bob "Red" Kupiszewski at the guard posts.

The Cavaliers have failed to win in three trips to the hardwood, bowing to Phillipsburg, in addition to Hellertown and Bangor.

A junior varsity contest, between East Stroudsburg and Parkland, is scheduled for 6:45 p.m. with the main event carded for 8:15.

Frisco Football Club For Sale

San Francisco, (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers football team named after the gold prospectors are for sale if the price is right.

The decision was announced yesterday by Anthony J. and Victor P. Morabito, the club owners.

Elder brother Tony said "I have decided to sell my share if the price is right."

Clark To Join A's

Tom Clark, 32, Martinsville, Va., yesterday was named public relations director of the Philadelphia Athletics of the American League.

He succeeds Richard Armstrong who resigned to enter the advertising business.

Bangor To Battle Nazareth

Bangor—Bangor High will go in search of its second Lehigh-Northampton League basketball victory in three outings today, when the charges of Coach John Heard invade Nazareth High's court.

Two Tilts

The junior varsity encounter is listed for 6:45 p.m., and the varsity contest at 8:15 p.m.

Bangor defeated East Stroudsburg and lost to Coplay in league play thus far this season.

Moore Maps Plans For Near Future

By Murray Rose

ST. LOUIS, (AP) — Archie Moore, the newly-crowned light heavyweight champion, doesn't intend to waste too much time cashing in on his title.

The 36-year-old veteran of 16 years of pro battling, said yesterday he will rest about a month and then start working on the busy campaign Manager Charley Johnston is mapping out for him.

"He's chased the title for eight years," said Johnston. "Now he'll chase the money."

Moore's next fight may be a non-title affair in St. Louis February 18 with the winner of the Danny Nardico-Jake La Motta clash, scheduled for Miami December 31.

Depends

"That fight will depend on how the Nardico-La Motta bout goes," said Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club. "We want to put Moore in with Bob Satterfield in Chicago on January 14, but Archie wants to go back to San Diego and rest first. He's been fighting or training constantly for over six months."

"Jim Norris, president of the IBC, Jack Kearns manager of Joe Maxim and Johnston discussed the plans for a return title bout between Moore and Maxim early this morning," added Gibson.

"We're agreed on most details. It will probably be in mid-April. But we haven't decided on the site yet."

A's Release Pitcher

Philadelphia (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics yesterday released outright to their Ottawa farm team in the International League, righthander Johnny Kucab, a relief pitcher who won five and lost five over the last three years for the A's.

Dickie Everitt, Dick Cramsey, Bill Karshner, Bill Morse, Bill Queenan, Fred Pugh, Harold Davis, Doug Kitten, Douglas Wright and Bobby Adelman make up the Stroudsburg Fire Department contingent.

Wyckoff-Sears

Wyckoff-Sears will be composed of Tommy Gross, Bill Campbell, Tom Lee, Bob Somers, "Bud" Heller, Jack Rode, Larry Hamill, Dick Kohl and John Kintz, while Dick Seip, John Gilpin, Harry Phillips, John Taylor, Jimmy Farris, Carl Fitzsimmons, Gary Sullivan, Jerry Shanley and Jay Harmon will be members of the Stroudsburg Candyland.

Jerseys will be presented to the teams within two weeks.

Metropoulos also announced that there is still room for boys from 10 to 12 years of age, but the full compliment of eight and nine-year-olds are already on hand.

Monday's schedule sends Koren's Roofers against Stroudsburg Candyland at 4:05 p.m., while Wyckoff-Sears Fire Department and Wyckoff-Sears tangle at 4:45.

Robinson Definitely Retires From Ring To Devote Full Time To Business, Dancing Careers

New York (AP) — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson positively retired from the ring yesterday to devote his time to his business and dancing careers.

He made the announcement through Abe Greene, commissioner of the National Boxing Association in a backhanded punch at the New York State Athletic Commission.

As New York stripped Robinson of his title, December 4 for not defending within six months, the 32-year-old Harlem dandy made his formal retirement through Greene in a mimeographed release.

Sugar Ray, one of boxing's all time greats with only three defeats in a brilliant career of 137 pro fights, said he picked the NBA because it represented the majority of the boxing commissions of the world and because it had been extremely helpful to him.

"At this stage of my career I don't feel I can give my followers the best I have," said Robinson in a telephone interview. "I don't want to let them down."

"A lot of very big people, and I mean very big people, in boxing put a lot of pressure on me to go through with a Randy Turpin match. But I felt I should have made this announcement long before so I made up my mind all of a sudden."

"I don't want to be like a lot of others who didn't retire in time."

Robinson won't have to worry. He has a bar and grill, a beer and ale distributing agency, a lingerie shop, a barbershop, a cleaning establishment and a real estate office in Harlem. He started a new career as a night club entertainer November 8 and is booked for a long tour that will take him to Detroit, Chicago, Las Vegas and Miami Beach after the holidays.

George Barton, president of the NBA, informed Greene by telephone from his St. Paul office that he favored contests among "Bohe" Olson, a ranking challenger; Ernie Durando, Paddy Young and "Rocky" Castellani as runners up. The American survivor would meet the winner of a bout in Europe between Turpin and Charles Humez of France. Barton favored speedy action with no more than 90 days between bouts. He has called an executive committee meeting January 10-11 to discuss the situation.

While Robinson debated his retirement and talk of a third Robinson-Turpin fight in London, June 9 was in the air, Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, already announced plans for a middleweight tournament. Durando, Olson, Humez and Turpin were mentioned with Young and Castellani also considered.

Chairman Bob Christenberry of the New York State Athletic Commission also favors a tournament of outstanding contenders with Turpin, Olson, Humez, Durando, Walter Cartier, Young and Castellani among those mentioned.

Seven Teams Ready For YMCA Tourney

Seven of the eight teams needed to launch a Christmas Basketball Tournament at the Monroe County YMCA are in the fold and the one berth remaining is expected to be filled by starting time on Monday. All action will take place on the YMCA court.

The teams entered thus far are Newton A. C. of New Jersey; Frank's Barbers, Worthington Mowers, DeVivo's Shoemen and three teams as yet unsponsored but currently listed as Fetherman and Co., Woodlins Inc. and Anthony and Co.

Deadline

Entry fees of five dollars per team and rosters of not more than 10 players must be submitted at the YMCA by 8 p.m. today.

If the one opening is filled by tonight, pairings for the tournament will be made at that time. Tournament activity will take place on Monday and Tuesday of the next two weeks.

The tournament is an elimination affair, with one loss forcing the defeated team out of operation.

TTHS Invades Greene-Dreher

Tobyhanna Township High, one of the best teams in the Monroe County League, will be at home with a strong band of Dreher-Sterling, one of the powers of the Wayne County Conference, clash on the latter's home court today, in one of the best games in the area.

TTHS, getting ready to seek its fourth straight circuit crown, won over Greene-Dreher, last year, at Pocono Pines, in an overtime contest.

The junior varsity encounter is listed for 8 p.m., and the varsity battle one hour later.

Coolbaugh

Coolbaugh High, highly regarded by many followers of the Monroe County League, will be at home with a strong band of Frank's Barbers from East Stroudsburg. This contest will start at approximately 8 p.m.

Pocono High, winner of one of five games thus far this season, invades the home domain of Blairtown, N. J., High today, for both junior varsity and varsity court battles. The opening game is carded for 7:15 p.m., and the main event one hour later.

Barrett and Chestnuthill, other Monroe County League entries, aren't scheduled for action today.

Graham Hopes To Regain Form

New York (AP) — Billy Graham, 30-year-old veteran of 115 pro fights, hopes to regain lost prestige tonight in a 10-round rematch with Joey Giardello, his August 4 conqueror.

Coverage

Beaten by Giardello, 22, and then soundly whipped by Kid Gavilan in his second welter title bid, Graham needs to win to stay with the top rankers.

The Madison Square Garden match, scheduled for 10:00 p.m. (EST) will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC).

Graham's career record of 98 wins, nine defeats and eight draws makes him a two to one choice to even matters with the brawling Philadelphia counter puncher.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Pocono A. C. wrote its own swan song as far as the Blue Mountain League is concerned when not one single member of the baseball organization from Monroe County attended Wednesday's annual banquet at Stockerstown. The only thing that can keep the tenant at Gordon Giffels field for the next two years in the circuit is some rapid action on the part of the local club, as the Blue Mountain League reportedly has eight teams ready for 1953 action.

The Monroe County contingent hasn't been represented at a meeting for months and from all appearances is going to or has folded. Roseto was in the doubtful stage until Wednesday, when the club informed the league that it would definitely operate next season, bringing the total to eight without Pocono A. C. However, if Pocono A. C. does decide to return to action in 1953, the circuit will operate as a nine and possibly a 10-team circuit, a move quite legal under the present by-laws.

Martins Creek was officially admitted to the circuit some time ago and at present it appears as if the new entry is a replacement for Pocono A. C., unless the Monroe County club acts rapidly. If Pocono A. C. doesn't operate next season, either Portland or teams in the Pocono Mountains League will pick up some good diamond talent. It appears to be a shame that work of the past two years should go by the boards so easily.

Paul "Doc" Lim, a forward on the Stroudsburg High junior varsity basketball team, will be unable to face the Polk varsity in the preliminary of the Scranton Central-Stroudsburg clash tonight, due to a jaw injury suffered against the Tobyhanna Township High varsity on Tuesday of this week. John "Juice" Arnet appears to be a sure thing at Penn State, unless some other top ranking school comes along with an offer that is out of this world. It is almost safe to bet that Dick Merring and Joe Shea will also wind up at State. All three played a major role in the record of eight wins and one setback compiled by the East Stroudsburg grid machine last season.

Bill Bailey and Al Adelman are to be warmly congratulated for being named to the first All-Lehigh Valley League team recently, while all the other members of the Stroudsburg High football team mentioned on the long list also deserve a firm handshake. It has been this writer's contention that Bailey and Adelman should have received at least honorable mention on the all-state grid aggregation. Bailey and Adelman formed the backbone of the Stroudsburg grid contingent during the season just completed and will be missed greatly next year.

Although the 1952 football season was a painful disappointment to Floyd "Willie" Williams, who suffered a broken leg in the second game of the season, a non-league affair against Bangor, the Stroudsburg end received honorable mention on the Lehigh Valley League team for his play against Lehigh, the only circuit contest in which the glue-fingered wingman played all year.

Al Bessellink, who played plenty of golf at Shawnee-on-Deleware while still in the amateur ranks, earned $10,000 as a pro during the season just completed. The lanky blond, who swats a ball a mile, is pro at Grossingers, in New York. Harry Schaeffer, who began his professional career on the diamond with the Stroudsburg Pocono and was graduated from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, is rumored to be one of the names being discussed in a possible trade between the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers.

A public address system was used Monday in the ESSTC-Ithaca College basketball game and proved very popular with the crowd, although the number of spectators was very small. The system is used to announce changes in lineups and keep the fans up with substitutions. Rocco Ippolito, who earned his baseball spurs with Nyack, of the North Atlantic League, will be out of the Army in February and will return to the St. Louis Browns for spring training.

Jack Kist, football and baseball coach at East Stroudsburg High, was mentioned in the latest issue of the Sporting News as a scout for the Browns. Kist is also an expert painter, so this column has been informed. Aiden "Red" Fetherman, former football, basketball and baseball star at Stroudsburg High School, is currently playing junior varsity basketball at Muhlenberg.

Alumni Rallies To Decision Barrett, 60-55

Last Quarter Spurt Decides Court Issue

Canadensis — A big fourth period enabled the Alumni to take the measure of Barrett High's cage machine here last night, on the school court, 60-55. It was the second straight loss for the Barrett contingent that opened the season with three consecutive victories. Only one game was played last night, because of the air raid drill.

Play was on an even keel through most of the game, the count being tied at 36-36 going into the final eight minutes of action.

Barrett had the better of the early going, coming up with a 14-12 edge in the first round and then building a 27-20 advantage at the halfway mark, after compiling a 13-8 advantage during the second period.

Finds Range

However, the older and more experienced Alumni contingent found the range in the second half and slowly ate into the high school lead and then passed the charges of Coach Joe Murray.

The Alumni dominated the third quarter, 16-9, to tie the score, then held a 24-19 edge in the fourth and final round to take home the bacon.

Barrett made 16 of 24 shots from the foul line, while the Alumni came through with only six of 15 tosses from the same distance. Ralph Williams scored 21 points to lead the attack for the Alumni, while Phil Price, with 22 markers, captured scoring honors in the contest while leading the Barrett offensive.

The Daily Record
Dear Jim:

Being a two-year alumnus of East Stroudsburg High, I take an almost rabid interest in the school's sports activities, especially since the football team has come into its own. This season I shouted with joy and pride as team after team fell prey to the purple and white juggernaut that Mr. Kist had whipped together—I turned crimson with indignation when "we wuz robbed" at Wilson.

As a grandstand quarterback, I often felt that a huge mistake had been made when certain plays backfired, but I everlastingly rooted for the boys with heartfelt sincerity and the belief that every possible effort was being employed toward winning the game.

I am accustomed to having my favorite team beaten, as you may well understand, but not once in the long era of defeats have I ever felt that I was being deprived of the best my school had to offer.

It may seem unreasonable, but I think that I and every other loyal fan deserve to have a basketball team that is truly representative of the best talent available—not next year, but THIS YEAR!

Pocono Manor Entry Bows On Extra Hole

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — The oldest golf club in the international four-ball tournament—Miami Beach's 51-year-old Willie Klein—teamed with a New York redhead, Al Brosch, yesterday to spring a sensational first round surprise by ousting Sam Sneed and Jim Ferrer, three and two.

Sneed, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., slammer, and Ferrer, the big San Francisco veteran who has been shooting a hot game since he arrived in Florida last week, were among the best liked teams in the $13,000 event.

But it was a bad day for both on the greens, and superior putting sewed up the match for Klein, a Miami Beach club pro who played in the four-ball in 1926 and hasn't won a major tournament in more than a decade, and his younger New York partner.

Age continued to prevail when Henry Picard and John Revolta, two old-timers who won the tournament three years in a row, 1935-37, took their first round match.

The tournament's defending champions—Pete Cooper, White Plains, N. Y., and Claude Harmon, Massena, N. Y.—were eliminated in the day's first match over the scenic 6,657-yard Normandy Isle course. Their conquerors were Hogan Barron, White Plains, N. Y., and Glenn Test, Buffalo, N. Y., one-up.

Another highly regarded team, Cary Middlecott, Memphis, Tenn., and Skip Alexander, St. Petersburg, Fla., was forced to go two extra holes to survive the opening round. They defeated Jackson Bradley, Chicago, and Jack Shields, Glenage, N. Y., one-up on the 20th.

Julius Boros, the 1952 golf money-winning champion from Mid Pines, N. C., and his teammate, Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y., also needed an extra hole to down Henry Williams, Pittsburgh, and Milton Marusic, Herskimer, N. Y., one-up on the 19th.

Jim Demaret, Concord, N. Y., and Jack Burke, Houston, defeated Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., and Pete Fleming, St. Andrews, Ill., one-up on 19.

Ryan Steps Down As President Of Indians

By Dick Smith
Cleveland (AP) — Ellis W. Ryan resigned as president of the Cleveland Indians late yesterday and his supporters in the club's front office dispute agreed to sell nearly all their stock holdings. Myron H. Wilson was elected to succeed Ryan.

After a four-hour directors' meeting, which followed a special meeting of 30 stockholders, an announcement was made that Ryan had quit as president, but would continue as a director for this time being.

The announcement said the Ryan faction had agreed to sell approximately 1,300 shares of their stock to the opposing group. Attorneys will go ahead with the purchase, which the announcement said should be completed about January 17.

Outvoted

In a stockholder meeting shown before the directors' session, the Ryan group was outvoted 1,536 to 1,464. At that meeting each side elected six directors.

Wilson, president of the Wilson-Mac Bride Insurance Agency, was the only new director. He was identified with the anti-Ryan faction and replaced Loring G. Bach, who did not want to retain his directorship. Gelbach, a banker, held no stock.

The outcome of the directors' conference leaves General Manager "Hank" Greenberg in a much stronger position. Although both sides had said in advance Greenberg's reported $65,000-a-year contract would not be terminated before it expires two years hence, differences between Ryan and Greenberg in operational policies made up an important issue in the controversy.

Santa May Help NYU

Newark, N.J. (AP) — New York University Football Coach Hugh Devore probably doesn't believe in Santa Claus—not after losing five of eight games. But he'll have a hard time convincing his two youngest children.

Devore, who lives in nearby West Orange, brought Joe, two, and Noreen, four, to Newark to see a department store Santa. After the youngsters had perched on his knee and whispered their wishes, the man in the red suit apparently recognizing Devore replied:

Good Idea

"Yes. And I bet I know what your old man wants—a couple of good halfbacks."

That was enough for a coach's daughter. Noreen's eyes popped out as she said: "Gee, daddy, do you really know Santa?"

Two Wayne Games Listed

Newfoundland — Tonight's final round of action before the long Christmas holiday in the Wayne County Basketball Conference finds Waymart at Lake Township and Honesdale at Pleasant Mount.

A win for the championship crew of Coach Pat "Red" Walsh will deadlock the Warriors with Northern Wayne for the conference lead at three wins, no losses for each club. The Lakewood five will not hit the boards again until January 13.

Waymart breezed past Honesdale Tuesday night, 73-59, for their second win of the young season. Co-captains Joe Podunajec and "Ros" McMullen paced the victors with 18 points each as the Warriors made every quarter a winning one. Paul Schroeder was high man for the Hornets with 17 markers.

First Win

Coach Carl Bell's Damascus quintet came up with a 53-52 overtime victory over Hawley last Tuesday on the Hawley court. Kenneth Bjorn sank a foul shot in overtime to decide the issue. Walter Bjorn led the Damascus attack with 19 points, while Allen Anke, with 15 markers, paced the Hawley offense.

Sittigs Buy Property At Shawnee

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel J. Noah, New Canaan, Conn., et al, have sold a property and residence in Smithfield Township, according to deeds recorded yesterday at the Court House.

Grantees were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Sittig, Shawnee-on-Deleware. The property is on Worthington Ave., adjoining land of Frank L. Patterson Jr. and Shawnee Inn.

Another residence has been purchased by Eva Mundhenk, Arington, N. J., from Mr. and Mrs. George W. Guyer, Haddonfield, N. J. The tract is in Barrett Township, on the road from Newfound-land to Stroudsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar S. School, Stroudsburg, transferred to Charles D. Waltz, Stroud Township, a small lot in that township on the west side of Cedar St.

The Mason-Dixon line, surveyed in 1766, is still the traditional boundary between North and South in the United States.

School PTA Serves Annual Turkey Dinner To 325 Students At Cost Of 17 Cents Each

Newfoundland—Over 325 people laid 17 cents "on the line" here yesterday and sat down to a whacking good turkey dinner. They had their fill of roast turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered peas, celery sticks, cranberry sauce, rolls, ice cream, cup cakes and milk—all for less than they would have to pay for a loaf of bread.

Before eager housewives become overjoyed and rush out to their favorite market expecting that long-awaited drop in the price of edibles, it should be explained that this dinner was served to the students of the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Joint School by that institution's hot lunch program.

The trick, of course, is subsidies from a number of sources—the Federal hot lunch program, the surplus food division of the government and others. It must also be pointed out that a meal of these proportions is served only once a year—at Christmas time.

However, the "kids" didn't seem the least bit interested from whence the food came—they simply heaped it on and "dug in" for all they were worth. And when the meal was finished, those deep sighs that seem to come with the wonderful feeling of a full stomach were in evidence.

The local lunch program is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher

Association of the school and is under the supervision of Miss Florence Grimm, home economics instructor. The kitchen staff includes Mrs. Harry Simons, Mrs. Wardell Robacker and Mrs. Myrtle Waltz, assisted by a detail of girls from the home economics department.

The prison system for punishment of criminals did not begin until toward the end of the 18th Century, although isolated prisons were used earlier.

Mrs. Walter Murphy
